

Capital Transmission acquires a minority stake in Group Mistral in an MBI-scheme

Capital Transmission, within a group of co-investors formed with Omnes Capital (as lead investor), Swen Capital Partners and Parvilla, enters alongside the buyer, Fabrice Le Camus and his sparring partner Jacques Rivière, to the capital of the Mistral Group as part of a Management-Buy-In transaction (MBI).

Christian Fournier, the Founding-CEO and 100% shareholder of the company, sells all of his shares.

Based in Clermont-Ferrand (Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes Region, France) and founded in 1980, Mistral group sells an integrated software solution (ERP) dedicated to the market and the business of dealers, renters and resellers of agricultural and construction equipment .

In a rapidly growing ERP software market, mainly driven by the digital transformation, Mistral group enjoys an excellent market position thanks to its good reputation among its customers. It also benefits from a long-standing expertise and from one of the most comprehensive offer in the market with attractive development perspectives, especially in mobile applications and SaaS.

The operation aims at enabling the group to pursue its commercial development, by targeting market share gains and improving its reputation with development of new ranges of products and by reinforcing its presence both in France and abroad.
