

Capital Transmission is participating as a minority investor in the growth financing of Meiko VET AG, a group of Swiss veterinary practices

Meiko VET is an owner-managed group of Swiss veterinary practices based in Villmergen, Aargau. It also operates the telemedicine platform pet-care.ch. In the context of succession arrangements, particularly interesting practices are taken over and their activities maintained with a high degree of autonomy; sometimes new practices are also created. The Meiko VET locations are equipped with state-of-the-art instruments and equipment and the veterinarians have the latest expertise in veterinary medicine. The aim is to combine the geographical proximity of a local veterinarian with a high level of medical competence and professionalism. An extensive network guarantees access to the knowledge of some of the best specialists in Switzerland. In addition, thanks to its own specialists, Meiko VET can offer complex operations in all its practices, especially in the field of orthopedic surgery.

Capital Transmission is participating in the growth financing of Meiko VET as a minority investor together with the existing shareholders.
