

Capital Transmission invests in Bandi SA

Founded in 1970, Bandi is present in Switzerland in Courtételle in the Jura region, where it has its historic production site. Bandi, which employs 70 full-time employees, specializes in bar turning and supplies high-precision components to major Swiss watch manufacturers.

Capital Transmission has invested in Bandi SA alongside its historical and majority shareholder, Renaissance Foundation & Management.

About Capital Transmission

Capital Transmission SA is an investment company founded in 2008 and subsidiary of the BCGE group.

Our objective is to provide financial support to companies and entrepreneurs via equity and quasi-equity contributions ranging from 2 to 15m CHF. Based on a balanced risk and long-term approach Capital Transmission invests in mature companies with sound profitability and a talented management in place.

With a presence in both Geneva and Zürich, we focus on Switzerland and Europe. The companies we invest in usually generate sales between 5-100m CHF. Thanks to our structure, we can provide tailored-made financing solutions to support growth initiatives (build-ups, expansion etc.).

We are used to work with family-owned businesses and have established ourselves in the past ten years as the go-to partner in terms of succession solutions for family businesses, spin-offs, MBI, MBO and OBO.

Capital Transmission builds a trusting relationship with the company's management and does not interfere in the day-to-day business
